Annexation Adds 800

- B.N. Holt photo with Star camera TOM HODGENS

"The result of a recent survey shows the population of Hope is 10,213. And the area to be annexed will add 800 more to the total," said Vincent Foster as a preface to introducing the guest speaker, Tom Hodgins of Little Rock, at the Rotary Club's luncheon meeting last Friday in the Town and Country.

Mr. Hodgins has been in Hope working the past few months with the Urban Renewal Program, and he explained the program and what Hope can expect from it. He told of planning for streets, drainage, utilities, buildings, and public services. The federal government is paying the cost on a 3 to 1 ratio, and in the next 15 years some 17 1/2 million dollars will be spent. John Hawkins and Associates of Texarkana are the engineers.
Mike Kelly, Hubert Thrash, and Rep. Talbot Feld, Jr., all of whom have worked with the Urban Renewal Program, Vince Foster, Warren Butler, and George Kirk of San Fernando, Calif., were guests at the meeting.

Bronx Housing Dedication
NEW YORK (AP) — A $293.8 million middle-income cooperative housing development which eventually will house more than 50,000 residents, has been dedicated in the Bronx.
Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, speaking Sunday at the 300-acre site, hailed it as a "spectacular and heart-warming answer to the housing problems of the nation's cities."
On Dec. 10, the first residents will start moving into the one building completed thus far—a 24-story structure.

Freeway Not the Fastest
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Traffic experts want Los Angeles motorists to quit crowding the freeways and use the 20,000 miles of surface streets.
A test of time required to travel 11.7 miles from west Los Angeles to the downtown Civic Center at a rush hour showed: The drive on surface streets took 30 minutes compared to 48 minutes by freeway and 77 minutes by bus.
In response to questions the Air Force said cracks had been discovered in the C130 wing skin during regular inspection.
Besides the $7.7 million, the Air Force said $3.86 million had been spent on other corrective measures, indicating that each C130 fix-up is costing the Air Force around $29,000.
Lockheed has built some 2,000 to 3,000 C130s.
The Air Force apparently does not hold the company responsible.
The drive on surface streets took 30 minutes compared to 48 minutes by freeway and 77 minutes by bus.

"Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken," The Hymn of the Month which Mrs. Charles Batson presented at the Friday Music Club meeting November 22 in the home of Mrs. Thomas Hays, Jr., served as a fitting description of the program which Mrs. Hendrix Spraggins gave on "Music of the Faiths." Her interesting narrative about church music and its composers was illustrated with solo and ensemble numbers.

Mrs. Thomas Hays, Jr. sang "Give Ye Unto Me" by Marcello, and a group of club members sang "Thou Knowest Lord the Secrets of Our Hearts" by Purcell. Mrs. B.C. Hyatt accompanied at the piano.

From the magnificent "messiah" by Handel, Roy Chatham, First Baptist Church Music Director, sang a tenor solo, and Mrs. Clarence Geist, a soprano solo. They were accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Strech, pianist. To conclude the program of religious music, Mr. Chatham sang "Walked Today Where Jesus Walked."

Guests were greeted by a harvest-time arrangement on the front door of the Hays home, and other dried arrangements, carnations and carnations were seen in the home. Mrs. Geist, club president, had charge of the business meeting.

Mrs. Onassis Charges a Photographer

PEAPACK, N.J. (AP) — A photographer who snapped pictures of Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis as she took a Sunday stroll in the country has been charged with trespassing.

Authorities said Mrs. Onassis complained that she had been frightened by the photographer, Philippe J. C. Poulipoulos, as she walked alone at the estate where she is staying with her husband and children.

Police said the photographer drove his car onto the grounds and hid it in a cornfield. They said he broke away when they tried to catch him and he was stopped after a chase on foot of nearly a mile.

Poulipoulos, a New York City resident who works for Al Ain Ayeache Actualités of Paris, was freed on $25 bond for a hearing in Municipal Court, according to Police Chief Frank J. Gallo.

Mrs. Onassis was wearing a black beret, black turtleneck and slacks. Authorities said she asked that the pictures not be used. They were confiscated but returned.

Mr. and Mrs. McDowell Turner, Justin Caldwell, and Bruce McRae went to Hendrix College in Conway Sunday for the matinee performance of "Iphigenia in Aulis," the Greek tragedy by Euripides. Ellen and Susan Turner were part of property committees for the production; Kay Tallant of Hope was assistant director; Gordon Bolar of Little Rock, formerly of Hope, had an acting role; and Kenneth Gilliam, assistant director of theatre arts at Hendrix, was associated director of the production.

Lady Bird to Dedicate Redwood Park

By BILL STALL
Associated Press Writer
EUREKA, Calif. (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson concludes her final beauty-America pilgrimage as First Lady by dedicating the 58,000-acre Redwood National Park "to the happiness of the people."

"For us, this ceremony is the crowning moment of a crusade which has lasted two generations," Mrs. Johnson said.

Her remarks were prepared for the dedication ceremony today at the foot of a 300-foot-tall redwood in the new national park near Orick, 40 miles north of Eureka in coastal Northern California.

Mrs. Johnson said creation of the park, out of existing California state parks and private timberland, "is one of my husband's proudest achievements."

And she complimented "the great generosity" of big timber companies in helping to create the park, a subject of a bitter, emotional dispute in the area where the economy depends on the redwood logging industry.

From the dedication site above Redwood Creek, Mrs. Johnson and her entourage will visit other areas of the new park, which stretches 40 miles along the Pacific Coast almost to the State line.

Mrs. Johnson planned to fly later to San Antonio, Tex., and then to the LBJ Ranch, ending a three-day, 6,000 mile tour that included stops at New Orleans, Capa Kennedy, Fla., Denver, Colo., and California.

Controversy still surrounds the park. Yet to be negotiated is the price to be paid to timber operators for nearly 30,000 acres of redwood land.

The rest of the park consists of three California state parks which remain in state ownership until a purchase, lease or land exchange agreement is negotiated with the federal government. So far, the only developed camping and picnic

WRITE ME A WALL

Dear Helen: I'm crazy about our "graffiti room." My husband wants to paint it out, I said "Let's put it to a vote," but he says this wouldn't be fair as voters wouldn't be fair as voters would be our friends and they're personally involved: Their writing is on our walls.

So we decided to get outside

Greek wisdom: Socrates, often called the wisest man who ever lived, foresaw danger in trying to legislate equality of the sexes. "Once made equal to man," he warned, "woman becomes his superior."

Far-smelling: A fortune awaits any man who can develop for girls a perfume as irresistible as that produced by the female gypsy moth. Less than a hundred millionth of an ounce of attractant scent released by one of these feminine flutters will bring scores of bull moths stampeding to her from up to half a mile distant.

Tahiti has one of the world's simplest building codes: "No building shall be higher than two-thirds the height of a coconut tree."

opinions. How about yours? Here's the story:
We started redecorating our big old house — which we bought cheap because it needed work. Friends surprised us with a house-warming before we got to the spare bedroom. It was going to be a den.

Well, one thing led to another and after a few drinks, somebody suggested autographing the walls. After all, we'd be painting them soon, and here was a wonderful opportunity to let yourself go.

I guess everyone has hidden urge for wall-art. I broke out the poster paint, and our guests had a ball. Ever since, whenever we have company, they read our walls, and add their own choice graffiti. Our friends are clever. Even my grandmother got a stiff neck reading our ceiling — and she wasn't shocked once — much. We have some pretty famous names here too, as we're in public relations.

Now my husband says our walls are to "busy." He can't work when they jump out at him. I ask, "Would you throw away a guest book? How can you paint out our friends?" And you? — WALL-EYED

Dear W-E: How about a compromise? Photograph three walls and put the enlargements in your guest book. Keep the best wall and ceiling for graffiti and paint the rest. . . Or maybe keep TWO walls. A great idea like this shouldn't be brushed aside! — H.

Dear Helen: It's no wonder men are well-headed. They are the preferred sex — by everyone.

Not only do women prefer the company of men, but men prefer the company of men — except in mating season. Even children gravitate toward men. Male teachers are more popular, unless a woman teacher is really outstanding. Bosses like men better, and advance them sooner.

Is it fair that a man should get all the cream, just because he was born male?
I am not gorgeous, just intelligent, and so I am constantly stock with "little homemakers" on the female side of the room. We have nothing in common. I would much prefer to talk politics or business with the men, but if they break away from their tight little male groups, they head for the locker, not the thinker.

Let's stop spilling men! — RESENTFUL MISS R.T.
Dear R: Seems to me you resent what you too would prefer, if given a chance. Your intelligence doesn't turn men off, friend, but jealousy might. In the mating game, a girl doesn't compete to win! — H.

Dear Helen: The letter from "Doubting Thomas" could have been written by me. My wife also threw me on errands to her house, left us together constantly. The inevitable happened. So my wife acted the wronged woman to the hilt, sued for divorce, and married a man I later learned had been her paramour. — ALONE IN A COMMUNITY PROPERTY STATE

Bobcats Tough in Final Half

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports writer

Four times this season the Hope Bobcats scored in the second half through those twelve games the squad played, and those four games were the only victories on a 4-7-1 record for the 1968 campaign, which ended last Friday night with a 6-0 loss to the Arkadelphia Badgers in Hammons Stadium.

Remarkably, only to 949-9000 were able to score on Hope in the final period after intermission, the pair being Ashdown and Magnolia. Including those, merely five teams punched over a TD in the whole last half, four of them resulting in defeats for the Bobcats.

Everybody looked forward to a much better season, after a 2-8-1 year in '67 and an enthusiastic local crowd came out to the season opener with Ashdown. What they saw, though, was an over-confident Bobcat team knocked down a notch by a surprising Ashdown crew that finished the season as District 7-A champions with a 9-3 score-sheet.

Still the Bobcats played them a tight game, with three Hope fumbles ending drives inside the Panther 15-yard line. Early in the final quarter, though, the Bobcats fumbled at their own 27-yard stripe and Ashdown went in for the touchdown that won 7-0.

Hurt from such a disappointing loss, the squad really got themselves ready for Prescott the next week. However, the fumble jinx continued and bobbles stopped impressive marches at the Curley Wolves' two and 15-yard lines. Prescott never could get any offense rolling, and the battle between the two bitter rivals wound up in a scoreless tie, all locked up at 0-0.

Now 0-1-1 and facing the De-Queen Leopards in a home game, the Bobcats were able to gain confidence offensively against a rebuilding Leopards squad that improved greatly before the year was up. QB Larry Massanelli had his best night passing the ball, at one point in the second half running off seven completions in eight attempts.

Running off two scoring drives of 64 yards apiece after halftime, the Bobcats rolled to an easy 30-7 victory and prepared for the first 4-AA opponent, the Smackover Buckaroos.

However, the Bobcats were flat after taking an early 6-0 lead, and let an injury-riddled Smackover team run off with a 13-6 decision. The Bucks drove 73 yards with the third-period kickoff for the deciding score, as the Bobcats never put up another serious threat.

Standing 1-2-1 but still healthy with few injuries, the Cats leaped into divisional competition in 4-AA West with the eventual champion Malvern Leopards. Although Hope was ready emotionally for a big game, the Leopards sprung loose HB Cornell Williams, a 9.6 sprinter in the hundred, and Williams broke for three long scoring runs in the first half to make it 21-0 at the break.

The Bobcats came back quite strong on defense, though, and held the Leopards scoreless from then on. However, Malvern had an invincible defense which never allowed Hope to penetrate its 25-yard line. Thus, the Bobcats took the 21-0 loss, but with a better attitude after the fine second-half showing.

Next was Texarkana Washington, the weakest team in the division. Although the team played without much emotion, two second-half TD's were enough to ice up a 20-6 victory and move

Hogs Waiting Out Texas, Aggie Game

By MICHAEL A. LUTZ
Associated Press Writer

The Arkansas Razorbacks may even rival the "12th Man" in cheering for Texas A&M when the Aggies tangle with the University of Texas on Thanksgiving Day.

"Gig 'em Aggies," the Razorbacks shouted Saturday after they had humbled Texas Tech 42-7 to clinch at least half of the Southwest Conference football championship.

Arkansas' sudden affection for the Aggies' welfare is purely selfish—an A&M victory would knock the Longhorns out of a tie for the title and propel Arkansas into the Cotton Bowl as the outright SWC titleholder.

A Texas victory would result in a tie with Arkansas for the title, but the Longhorns would get the Cotton Bowl berth because of the regular season victory over the Hogs.

If the Longhorns defeat the Aggies, the Razorbacks will take their 9-1 season record and No. 9 national ranking to the Sugar Bowl against Georgia.

"It's been 10 long uphill Saturdays," Broyles said after the Porkers had ended the Raiders' season. "This team was not to be denied."

The Red Raiders, who finished with a 5-3-2 record, stayed in the game until the third quarter when the Razorbacks began reaping benefits from Tech's numerous errors—including several pass interceptions.

Defensive halfback Tommy Dixon grabbed two of Arkansas' interceptions—one a 28-yard touchdown return for the Hogs' first score.

"It was the best game we've played all year," Broyles said. "The big difference was we were able to stop their running game."

Tech Coach J. T. King said a 30-yard run by Hog quarterback Bill Montgomery in the third quarter was the game breaker. The run gave Arkansas a first down and kept alive an 80-yard scoring drive.

"I think the biggest play of the game was when Montgomery was back to pass but ran instead and picked up those 30 yards and the big first down," King said.

Sophomore scoring machine Bill Burnett scored three times for Arkansas to increase his total points to 96 for the year, most ever for a conference sophomore.

In other games Saturday, Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl found SMU finally dispensed with the Baylor Bears, 33-17 and TCU defeated Rice 24-14 to assure the Owls of sole possession of the conference cellar.

The youthful Bears have won but two times this season, but have been improving all along. They led the Mustangs 17-14 at halftime before the Ponies' sensational sophomore quarterback Chuck Hixson unlimbered his throwing arm.

Hixson, the nation's premiere passer, threw touchdown passes to Bicky Lesser and Jerry Levis and sent Mike Richardson in from the one in the second half.

Hixson completed 26 of 51 passes for 348 yards. Richardson netted 154 yards rushing in 24 attempts, giving him 1,034 for the season.

Ross Montgomery teamed with Marty Whelan and Sammy Rabb to lead TCU to its third victory of the season.

Montgomery completed a halfback pass to Les Brown for the Frogs' first touchdown and quarterback Ted Fay ran over the next two stores to give TCU a 21-7 lead by the close of the third quarter.

Rice now ir22c x with one game remaining against Baylor Saturday.

now, and much credit must be given Head Coach Ronnie Higgins and Assistants Bill Lawrence, Jim Jordan, Gaylord Solomon, and Ed White, as well as Durward Bourns who scouted along with Solomon. They did a great job with the mountainous injury list and the mass of bad breaks which beset the team throughout the fall.

The past must be forgotten, though, and it will be very soon when the off-season program gets underway with little reminders written on the walls of the weight room listing scores of the losses of 1968. But for the common folks' interests turn towards basketball and other sports until next September 5, the night the Bobcats try for their first revenge, playing the Ashdown Panthers. But for now, the time has come and gone.

Porks Score Twice Against Strong Wind

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Frank Broyles wasted words Saturday at the half of Arkansas' important meeting with Texas Tech.

He told his Razorbacks that Tech would have the wind in the third quarter and that they should be prepared to go into the fourth period trailing the Red Raiders.

Instead, the Razorbacks, who led by seven at the half, scored twice against the wind in the third period and added two more touchdowns in the fourth period while shutting out the Raiders.

The result was a 42-7 victory and at least a share of the Southwest Conference championship—Arkansas' sixth in 10 years. The victory left Arkansas with a 9-1 record and virtually assured the Razorbacks of a national ranking.

"One of the big things in the ball game was that we could control the ball in the third period against the wind," Broyles said.

Tech snapped the ball only nine times during the third period.

Arkansas marched 80 yards on its second possession of the third period and then moved 55 yards for another touchdown later in the period.

That left Tech facing the wind and a 21-point deficit during the final 15 minutes.

The Arkansas defense stopped Tech from doing what the Raiders do best—grind out the yards. The Raiders netted 102 yards on 40 rushing attempts.

"For seven quarters, the first three against SMU and the four against Texas Tech, they've played as well defensively as any team we've had at Arkansas," Broyles said.

The Razorbacks will either be playing Tennessee at Dallas or Georgia at New Orleans on Jan. 1.

If Texas A&M beats Texas Thursday the Razorbacks will be in the Cotton Bowl. If the favored Longhorns defeat the Aggies Arkansas will be in the Sugar Bowl.

Broyles said before the season started that the Razorbacks had a chance to be a good football team. He could see the bright spots, but he also recognized the possible weaknesses.

"What we had was attitude, winning attitude," he said Sunday. "We had good morale, a lot of optimism and a lot of confidence. We won despite injuries; no one ever lost heart. This leadership began with the seniors, and the follow through, First Lighthouse

The first lighthouse built in the United States was the Little Brewster Island light at the entrance to Boston Harbor, which was first lit on Sept. 14, 1716.

Irish Could Tarnish the Rose Bowl

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ohio State has its berth in the Rose Bowl against Southern California, but the question is, will the Buckeyes be playing the first, second or even third ranked team in the country?

Notre Dame might have the answer.

The Irish get last crack—before Ohio State—at Southern Cal when they square off Saturday in the Los Angeles Coliseum before a national television audience, and you can bet 10th-ranked Notre Dame will have plenty to say on this ranking matter.

USC, 9-0, apparently will enter the game still top-ranked after beating down stubborn cross-town rival UCLA 28-16 while Ohio State, 9-0, completed its regular season with a rousing and surprising 50-14 over Michigan in the struggle for the Big Ten title and the bowl bid.

Should USC beat Notre Dame, it probably would keep its top billing, but should the Trojan lose, they could drop to second and even third behind Penn State, while Ohio State takes the top spot.

Penn State, No. 3 at 9-0, with a Dec. 7 battle against Syracuse still waiting, overwhelmed Pittsburgh 65-9.

But these aren't the only questions still lacking answers as the regular college football season draws to a close. The Cotton and Sugar bowls are still in the dark on their second teams—Texas or Arkansas.

Arkansas put in its final bid for the Southwest Conference championship and the automatic spot in the Cotton by wallowing Texas Tech 42-7 in its finale.

Texas gets its final say against rival Texas A&M on television Thanksgiving Day Thursday.

Arkansas is 6-1 in the conference, Texas 5-1, and a victory over the Aggies would give Texas a conference tie and the Cotton Bowl on the strength of its victory earlier over Arkansas.

Arkansas would then wind up in the Sugar. A Texas loss would put the Longhorns in the Sugar.

And then there is still the question of rankings.

Michigan, No. 4, is certain to drop, but the other Top Ten members in action last Saturday, Kansas and Tennessee, came through with victories.

Kansas, No. 7 and Orange Bowl bound against Penn State, clinched at least a tie for the Big Eight crown with a 21-19 squeaker over Missouri, No. 13, while Tennessee, No. 8 and headed for the Cotton Bowl, breezed past Kentucky 24-7. The Vols play Vanderbilt Saturday.

Georgia No. 5 which finishes against Georgia Tech Saturday was idle with Texas and Notre Dame.

Houston, No. 11, raised its stock by raising the score, pouring it on downtrodden Tulsa 100-0, a score so high the NCAA computer would not accept it.

The Cougars, led by Paul Gipson's 289 yards and three touchdowns, piled on 49 points in the final period to become the first team since Wyoming in 1949 to reach 100.

The points also helped shatter several NCAA record with 2,407 points being scored in 49 games during the weekend, an average of 49.12 a game.

"Please don't ask me anything," said Houston Coach Bill Yeoman, who had most of his starters out midway through the third period. "I'm embarrassed that we could beat a team like Tulsa 100-0."

Tulsa Coach Glen Dobbs could only mutter "we're a sick, injured and very young team."

Houston, 61-2, has a bigger test Saturday night at Jacksonville, Fla., against Florida State, 7-2, which is bound for the Peach Bowl after Ron Sellers caught five touchdowns passes in a 42-24 victory over Wake Forest.

Virginia Tech, 6-3, although idle before finishing against VMI Thursday, accepted a bid to the Liberty Bowl against Mississippi while Wyoming, No. 20, lost its chance of any invitation by losing to Arizona 14-7.

Elsewhere in the Top Twenty, Purdue, No. 12, beat Indiana 38-35 as Leroy Keyes ended his collegiate career with four touchdowns; Oklahoma, No. 14, all but won a share of the Big Eight title by crushing Nebraska 47-0 as Steve Owens scored five times and Oregon State, No. 16, dropped Oregon 41-19.

Ohio University, No. 17, finished an unbeaten season with a 28-12 victory over Northern Illinois, and California, No. 18, lost to Stanford, 20-0.

Alabama, No. 15, and Auburn, No. 19, which meet Saturday, were idle.

Oklahoma still needs a victory

Just as football passed from the immediate limelight last weekend, tomorrow night marks the opening of the long basketball season with a couple of games in Jones Field House.

Scheduled on top are season openers for the Lady Cats and the "B" boys with Cape providing the opposition, and there is a possibility of the addition of a junior girls game.

The only other games slated for the week are with Nashville, the Lady Cats and Bobcats playing host to the Scrappers on Saturday night.

Bobbitt Coach Jim Jordan started workouts with the junior basketball squad, after Bill Reynolds had handled the bunch during football season. The juniors will be participating in the Fairview Invitational in early December, besides a full slate of games before the start of district play in January.

scoring play and Jim Turner kicked a field goal for a 10-0 first period lead. Turner's kick was his 29 of the season, a pro football record, to which he added two more field goals before the story ended.

By halftime it was 27-7 with San Diego only able to break through on Speedy Duncan's AFL-record 95-yard punt return. It wasn't until the score had reached 37-7 that Hadl hit on a touchdown pass and two-point conversion. By then Maynard had caught six passes for 156 yards and George Sauer, the league's leading receiver, five for 124 yards, putting both over the 1,000 yard mark.

Oakland, which lost the last six television seconds to a station break this week, had things well in hand by then, as NBC explained. Daryle Lamonica, who hit 31 of 33 passes for 368 yards, clicked for one touchdown and set up two others, while replacement George Blain da set up another and kicked two field goals.

Denver, after blowing a nine-point lead in the last two minutes, came back from a 32-31 deficit on Bob Howfield's 12-yard field goal with 11 seconds left.

Buffalo had turned a blocked punt and a fumble into 10 points with 26 seconds remaining, but then tried an inside kickoff that Denver covered. Marlin Briscoe, who threw for four touchdowns, then hit Floyd Little for 59 yards to the Buffalo 10, setting up Howfield's kick.

Bob Griese made things much easier for Miami with three touchdown passes, two to Karl Noonan, after the Dolphins had fallen behind 10-0. Dick Anderson, w/388 d reept an earlier pass, wrapped up the victory with a 95-yard interception return for a 27-10 lead.

Reddies Help Tech Take AIC Crown

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Arkansas Tech grabbed half of the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference championship a week ago.

Saturday, the Wonder Boys got the other half without lifting a finger.

Henderson's Reddies uplied the manpower, knocking off Ouachita 16-0. The Reddies' victory left them tied with Ouachita for second place in the conference at 4-2.

Tech, loser only to Ouachita, finished 5-1 in the conference. By winning a clearout championship, the Wonder Boys earned the right to meet the AIC All-Stars Saturday at War Memorial Stadium.

Henderson defeated Ouachita by gaining a 13-0 lead before play. The Reddies took the opening kickoff, marched for a touchdown, recovered an on-sides kick and scored again before the Tigers' center ever bent over the football.

Tech wound up its regular season by defeating Southeast Missouri 21-7.

Anderson scored touchdowns on runs of nine and 10 yards. Southern State deprived Arkansas A&M of a tie for second in the conference by defeating the Weevils 21-13. A&M and State College of Arkansas, which lashed Harding 28-6, tied for fourth in the conference.

Southern State was sixth in the final standings followed by Harding, which did not win a conference game.

Stanley May scored two touchdowns and threw a 30-yard scoring pass to Kenny Camp to spark Southern State. Bobby Hill scored on runs of two, three and 15 yards to pace SCA.

Some Second String QBs Doing a Job

by DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Nobody seems to be immune to the crippled quarterback epidemic sweeping the National Football League this year. But three clubs are getting maximum protection from the first aid firm of Morrill, Morton and Bratkowski.

Morrill, who stepped into Johnny Unitas' pass pocket at the outset of the season when the Baltimore ace came up with a sore pitching arm, helped the Colts stamped the Minnesota Vikings 21-9 Sunday for their 10th victory in 11 starts.

Morton, filling in for ailing Dallas star Don Meredith, guided the Cowboys to a 17-10 romp over the injury-riddled Chicago Bears. Bratkowski, working in relief of sore-ribbed Bart Starr, led the Green Bay Packers past Washington 27-7 and into title contention.

The Colts remained one-half game ahead of the Los Angeles Rams, who nipped New York 24-21 on Bruce Gossett's field goal with four seconds to play, in the Coastal Division race. Dallas, 9-3, increased its Capitol lead over the second place Giants to two games, with three to play. And Green Bay, 5-5-1, climbed within one-half game of first place Minnesota in the Central scramble.

Bill Nelsen, another one-time backup quarterback, kept Cleveland's Century pace-setters rolling, teaming with running back Leroy Kelly to engineer a 47-13 rout of the winless Philadelphia Eagles.

St. Louis trimmed Atlanta 17-12 to stay 1 1/2 games behind the Browns; San Francisco drubbed Pittsburgh 43-28 and New Orleans fought Detroit to a 20-20 standoff.

In the American Football League the New York Jets trounced San Diego 37-15; Oakland battered Cincinnati 34-0; Miami whipped Boston 34-10 and Denver stashed Buffalo 34-32. Kansas City and Houston were idle.

Morrill, a 34-year-old NFL journeyman traded to the Colts by New York just before the start of the season, fired two touchdown passes. . . his 21st and 22nd of the year. . . as Baltimore soared to a 21-3 halftime lead over the Vikings. He hit on 13 of 16 passes for 225 yards in the first 30 minutes.

Minnesota's strong defensive unit stiffened after intermission, but the Colt defenders, who had shut out two of their three previous opponents, protected the margin. The Vikings' points came on three field goals by Fred Cox.

With Meredith nursing a torn knee ligament, Morton and the Dallas defense combined to stifle the Bears. The 25-year-old quarterback, understudy to Meredith for four years, completed 15 of 32 passes for 240 yards and one score. . . a 15-yard strike to Bob Hayes.

The Bears, who had lost half-

Muskie Has No Ambition for Top Spot

WASHINGTON (AP) — St
Edmund S. Muskie, the defeat Democratic vice president candidate, says he has no am

THE WELL CHILD

Child's Playthings Can Be Dangerous

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Toys are on nearly every one's mind as Christmas ap proaches. Efforts to make all toys foolproof have helped to cut the accident rate due to toys and play equipment but it still stands at about 4 per cent of all home ac cidents. Broken toys, toys that are put to uses that were never intended and lack of parental supervision are the chief contributing factors.

Faulty design and the use of hazardous materials form erly incriminated have been largely eliminated through the activity of the National Safety Council, the Federal Hazardous Substances Act and voluntary preventive measures by most large manufacturers. For ex ample, parental supervision could have prevented a boy from donning a Batman or Superman suit and jumping off a roof thinking he could fly. It could also have pre vented a toddler in his little puzzled—chameleon which paused atop the head of a red wagon from plunging down the basement stairs.

At different ages children need different toys. Those suitable for a toddler should be washable, nonbreakable and free of sharp edges. Plas tic toys made of poly styrene, polypropylene and polyethylene are preferred because, if they are broken, there will be no jagged edges. Electric toys for young children should work by batteries rather than by being plugged into a wall socket. As a child becomes older, let him have toys that would be dangerous for a younger child but make sure you teach him how to handle them safely.

Don't give a chemistry set to a child who is under 12 and even then keep track of what kind of experiments he is making. When he is old enough for electric toys that plug in, see that they bear the seal of the Underwriter's

Laboratories and impress on him that they must never be handled with wet hands.

If your child plays with any kind of gun, teach him to point it at a target or a tin can but never at another person or at an animal. If you give him roller skates or a bicycle, make sure there is a safe place for him to learn to use them. Properly selected toys will not only keep your child happy—they will also help him to grow up.

Q—Would an X ray taken of a baby a few days before birth be harmful?

A—The damage to a de veloping baby from irradi ation occurs in the first, not the last, three months of pregnancy.

Our Daily Bread

Sliced Thin by The Editor
Alex. H. Washburn
DeGaulle, Symbol of World Turning Conservative

Relations between the historic friends France and the United States cooled a couple of years ago when our country was faced with an exodus of gold and a world-wide attack upon the dollar — and France's Charles de Gaulle had the candor to tell Americans what was wrong with their government.

De Gaulle said the world had good reason to hold the dollar suspect while our government continued for a generation to spend more than it took in from taxes. He said France put its faith in gold rather than the dollar — and Americans, whose government would not permit its own citizens to hold gold as a measuring-stick for the worth of the dollar, at that time had no answer for the inscrutable Frenchman.

But we did come up with an answer somewhat later. Our people put pressure on the Congress, the Congress put pressure on the President, and governmental extravagance began to come under control — climaxed this month by the election of Conservative Nixon as our new President.

So America began mending her ways — and now the shoe is on the other foot: Now it is France whose currency is in trouble. And de Gaulle is a man of his word — in France's crisis hour he tells Frenchmen just what he told Americans during their own trouble.

The franc won't be devalued. France will cut her governmental budget almost in half. Frenchmen will just have to work harder, do with less — and save the republic.

Charles de Gaulle advocates the hard road — whether it be the United States or his own France.

This is the portrait of a strong-hearted and iron-willed national leader in a world full of compromise, confusion, and distrust. I was one of a handful of American editors who gave de Gaulle the benefit of the doubt when he criticized the U.S.A. for her climbing public debt — and I have lived to see de Gaulle make good on that confidence, telling his own people what he had earlier told foreigners.

De Gaulle has confronted France with but one choice — either reform at home or throw a great leader out.

Democratic Coalition Plans Reforms

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The new Democratic Coalition, making reform of the Democratic party's machinery one of its first goals, has commended National Chairman Lawrence F. O'Brien for saying he will name two reform committees.

The action Sunday by the coalition's temporary steering committee meeting in St. Louis underscored its determination to work within the framework of the Democratic party.

Most members of the steering committee were active in the presidential campaigns of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, or Sen. George S. McGovern of South Dakota, and many worked for Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey after his nomination.

The steering committee put off for two months decisions on a more formal national organization, but approved a statement that its main goal is "to transform the Democratic party into a national political instrument which will represent and provide avenues of participation for all citizens."

Nothing O'Brien's announcement Saturday that he would soon name the groups to develop new rules for the 1972 Democratic National Convention, the coalition sent him a telegram urging that they be "composed of those who worked to achieve party reform during the (1968) convention and whose membership will signal vigorous and prompt assistance to all states in making changes."

Several members expressed hope O'Brien would appoint Harold E. Hughes, governor of Iowa and a senator-elect, as chairman of the special committee to set guidelines for selecting 1972 delegates. Hughes headed a group whose recommendations on reform led to formation of the coalition.

Nixon Talks Over Federal Programs

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — President-elect Richard M. Nixon will be talking this week to Republican governors and senators about federal appointments and programs—with Ohio Gov. James A. Rhodes apparently leading the parade.

Rhodes, whose state went for Nixon over Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey, was expected to meet today with the 1968 presidential winner at Nixon's office suite in the Pierre Hotel.

Other GOP notables, their names not yet announced, also were understood to be on Nixon's office schedule for the immediate future.

There was no indication, however, that New York's Republican governor, Nelson A. Rockefeller, would be among the early arrivals. Rockefeller who contested Nixon for the GOP presidential nomination, is mentioned as a possible Cabinet choice in the Republican administration that takes office Jan. 20.

Nixon and his family spent a quiet Sunday — apart from hurriedly walks between their Fifth Avenue apartment and the Plaza Hotel at the foot of Central Park, where they ate a late brunch.

The President-elect and Mrs. Nixon, their daughter Julie and prospective son-in-law David Eisenhower went to morning services at the Marble Collegiate Church where Miss Nixon and the grandson of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower will be married Dec. 22.

The book-writing pastor, Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, in his pastoral prayer, asked God's guidance and "sustaining power" for the President-elect and the President-elect. At the end of the service, Dr. Peale asked the congregation to remain in place while he stepped down from his pulpit to greet "our dear friends, the President-elect and his family."

In his sermon, entitled "Never Doubt—God is on Your Side," Dr. Peale said, "That God loves you is the greatest truth ever enunciated. God doesn't want anyone to be hungry and oppressed. He just puts His big arms around everybody and hugs them up against Himself." In early afternoon, the Nixons strolled the several blocks from their apartment to the Plaza, where they dined in the Edvardian Room. Among other patrons present when they arrived was the former New York Yankees shortstop, Phil Rizzuto.

Grant to Aid Unemployed

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — An experimental program to help unemployable poor people in the state to become employable and to increase the employment level of others has been initiated by the University of Arkansas Division of General Extension.

The program has an initial federal grant of $200,000.

Aspirin Addicts Should Beware, They Just May Be the Death of You

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail: Elephants have longer eyelashes than even the sultriest Hollywood stars. They range from four to five inches in length.

Massachusetts Probe Reveals Profiteering Hiking Welfare Costs

BOSTON (AP) — Massachusetts' effort to take full charge of public welfare and straighten out its problems has been shaken by charges that welfare costs are on a runaway track.

A report by the legislative Committee on Public Welfare said "profiteering" by health service vendors and abuses by welfare administration were hiking costs.

The welfare system, in the first four months of state takeover, also has under attack by some welfare recipients who demanded more of everything, invaded welfare offices, assaulted social workers and ransacked desks.

The report also stated that addition of medical plus increases in aid to families with dependent children were pushing up welfare cost at an unprecedented rate.

The report, developed chiefly under direction of Sen. Beryl W. Cohen, D-Brookline, committee chairman, with two state police investigators, asserted last week that yearly welfare costs would go over $1 billion within two years.

The report said: "Numerous physicians, druggists and dentists are exploiting welfare recipients to an alarming extent by providing unnecessary, duplicative and costly services." Doctors are writing prescriptions for items such as toothpaste, soap, bandages and mouthwashes. Ten Boston dentists have been paid a total of more than $1 million this year for welfare work. Ten Boston druggists have been paid nearly $750,000 for sales to welfare recipients in the first

Air Pirates Force Two Planes to Cuba

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Two planeloads of travelers, forced to Cuba at gunpoint by separate teams of hijackers, returned to the United States with strikingly similar stories of the latest acts of air piracy.

A Pan American Airways jet, commandeered by three gunmen over the Atlantic Ocean after leaving New York for San Juan, P.R., landed in Havana Sunday minutes after the first hijack victims of the weekend were freed.

An Eastern airliner en route to Miami from Chicago was taken over Saturday night by a team of five men who forced their way into the cockpit at gunpoint, then stood their victims a round of drinks.

The 78 Eastern passengers were returned to the United States in a plane chartered by the U.S. State Department. Cuban authorities released the stolen jetliners and crews a few hours later.

The same charter plane was dispatched back to the Communist island and retrieved the Pan American passenger early today.

seven months of 1968, — Welfare recipients are allowed to own their own homes and recipients are increasingly buying real estate, including "many instances" of two or three-family homes. When a recipient fails to pay his rent or utilities, the Welfare Department will make full payment without penalty. The use of emergency food orders "has skyrocketed."

Department stores are creating divisions in furniture and household goods sections to encourage welfare recipients to buy. Recipients also have used taxicabs for unauthorized purposes and one Boston cab firm was paid $60,000 for transportation, including an average $12.20 per ride in July. The department pays the full costs of moving and a mover who owns one truck has been paid $113,000 for the first seven months of 1968.

Suit Against House Group Tossed Out

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court threw out today a suit challenging the constitutionality of the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

Dr. Jeremiah Stamler, Chicago heart specialist, and two others charged the committee's activities stifled freedom of association and criticism of the government.

Their request for a hearing was turned down by a 5-3 vote. Justices Hugo L. Black, William O. Douglas and John M. Harlan said the court should have scheduled oral argument in the case and weigh whether their appeal has merit.

Chief Justice Earl Warren and Justices William J. Brennan Jr., Potter Stewart, Byron R. White and Abe Fortas voted to dismiss the appeal. Justice Thurgood Marshall did not participate in the case.

Stamler and the two others, Mrs. Yolanda Hall, a nutritionist, and Milton M. Cohen, a social worker, refused to testify in a 1965 investigation of Communist activity in Illinois.

Their suit challenged the constitutionality of the 1946 congressional act that authorized the committee to investigate "un-American" and "subversive" "propaganda" and "propaganda activities."

They also sought an injunction against prosecution for contempt and against the activities of the committee.

Last June a federal court in Chicago dismissed the suit by a 2-1 vote. Judge Julius J. Hoffman held the 1965 hearing was immune from suit under a constitutional provision that "for any speech or debate in either house" Congress members "shall not be questioned in any other place."

The appeal said the 1946 act "sanctions inquiries into political beliefs and associations, pure and simple."

"The sweeping inquiry," the appeal added, "even when directed to Communist party membership, can serve no legislative interest which counterbalances the strong interest of citizens in the protection of their first amendment freedoms."

DeGaulle Seeks Change in the Money System

By STEPHENS BROENING
Associated Press Writer
PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle is playing for time in a hope that the current crisis of the franc will force the Western world to remake its monetary system the way he wants it.

In the radio speech Sunday night in which he announced austerity measures to defend the franc, De Gaulle said: "We are faintly seeing the day when the whole world will agree to establish an impartial and reasonable monetary system putting each country—when it needs it—in a peace protected from sudden absurd speculative movements."

De Gaulle's ideas on reform, high French officials explain, include a worldwide readjustment of currency parities within a return to the gold standard.

This would mean a rise in the official price of gold—in other words devaluation of the dollar—an end to the dollar's role as the chief reserve currency.

The political consequences of such a reform would be limitation of U.S. influence abroad, giving De Gaulle a more dominant place in Europe, French sources say.

Hints that this basic French aim is being maintained emerged from accounts of the cabinet discussion Saturday when De Gaulle surprisingly decided not to devalue the franc.

Informed sources said Foreign Minister Michel Debré dominated the debate against the kind of devaluation that would leave most other currencies untouched, that is a drop of less than 10 per cent in the franc's parity.

Debré proposed that the franc be devalued, he said, then it should fall far enough to bring other major Western currencies with it—the pound and perhaps the dollar.

Debré proposed that the franc be devalued, he said, then it should fall far enough to bring other major Western currencies with it—the pound and perhaps the dollar.

Within half an hour of the opening in Frankfurt, the West German bank lost about $200 million of the pile of $1.8 billion it bought up in last week's speculative spree.

Dealers in Frankfurt said the rush was due apparently to a desire of speculators to convert their mark holdings back into dollars. The U.S. dollar was at 3.975 to the mark, compared with last week's low of 3.97.

The sharp rise in the dollar pulled other currencies upward, even the franc, but dealers reported few transactions in the French currency.

It was a flight of the franc to the mark and other currencies that brought on the monetary crisis.

1,800 to Farm Bureau Meet

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — About 1,800 farmers are expected to attend the annual Arkansas Farm Bureau Federation convention here today and Tuesday.

Trumbo said the party would be formed by supporters of George C. Wallace. He predicted that either former Gov. Orval E. Faubus or former Democratic gubernatorial candidate Jim Johnson would head the party.

Both Faubus and Johnson supported Wallace's third party presidential bid this year. The former Alabama governor carried Arkansas.

Trumbo said a third party would benefit the Democratic party because it would allow progressive Democrats to take over the party.

"By enforcing a new rule, we could kick out of the party some people who are considered undesirable," Trumbo said. "The rule states that candidates and leaders of the Democratic party cannot support candidates of any other party."

"Then we could have one party that would take a straight, factual, practical and objective approach to problems," he said. "We don't have a party doing that now."

Attending an Arkansas Judicial Conference in Little Rock last week were Chancery Judges Royce Weisenberger of Hope, Alex Anderson of Texarkana and Circuit Judges Bobby Steel of Nashville and William Arnold III of Texarkana.

Judge Steel is president of the Judicial Council, Justice Ed F. McFaddin, formerly of Hope, was principal speaker. Also attending the seminar was Justice Lyle Brown, formerly of Hope.

Few Feel DeGaulle's Austerity Plan Can Restore Confidence

By JOHN VINOCUR
Associated Press Writer
PARIS (AP) — The franc strengthened in Paris today and the government announced new austerity measures. There was a stampede to buy dollars in Germany but other transactions on Europe's markets gave little clue as to whether the world's monetary crisis was over.

Foreign speculators, who had figured on an upward revaluation of the mark, began unloading their huge mark hoardings in Frankfurt and the West German bank sold about $1 billion U.S. dollars for marks.

Gold sold briskly in Paris but at a slower rate than last Tuesday before the Paris markets were closed to dampen speculation.

Government leaders and financial experts watched closely for indications of whether President Charles de Gaulle's new austerity program can save the franc from devaluation.

De Gaulle announced over the weekend he would not devalue the franc, declaring that would only reward "odious speculation." The official rate is about five to the dollar.

The official quotation of the franc today was 4.975-4.96 to the dollar. It reached a level of 4.974 last week, forcing the Bank of France to intervene. Official parity is 4.937.

The franc had apparently been bolstered by De Gaulle's decision to get the economy back in balance, but holders of francs still seemed anxious to shift their money into some other form.

The volume of the Paris gold market was $2.56 million, compared with $4.7 million on last week's final trading day. One kilogram—2.2 pounds—of gold closed at $1,348, up from $1,289 last week.

Unofficial trading last week had seen the price of a one-kilogram ingot soar to $1,398.

One of the more surprising results was the rush to the dollar in Germany, where the government announced last week it would not revalue the mark upward.

Within half an hour of the opening in Frankfurt, the West German bank lost about $200 million of the pile of $1.8 billion it bought up in last week's speculative spree.

Fresh Impetus to End War

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Rep. Gerald R. Ford, R-Mich., says Richard M. Nixon will provide fresh impetus to end the Vietnam conflict after he becomes president, "if it isn't ended before then."

"He'll be in a position to do much like Ike did at the time of the Korean War," said the House majority leader, referring to former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Despite the Democratic majority in both houses, Ford said, Nixon will be able to get along better with the 91st Congress than Hubert Humphrey would have if his White House bid had succeeded.

Ford, speaking Saturday at a convention of the Radio-Television News Directors Association, said the new Congress will be "philosophically more aligned with Nixon than Humphrey regardless of party labels."

MIGS Shoot Down Two U.S. Planes

By GEORGE ESPEY
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — Two U.S. jet planes were attacked by MIG fighters and surface to air missiles and downed over North Vietnam, the U.S. Command announced today.

In a terse announcement, the Command said an unarmed reconnaissance aircraft and an armed fighter, which often accompany reconnaissance sorties, were downed in separate incidents.

"Suppressive fire," presumably bombing and strafing runs, was used in attempts to rescue the downed crewmen, the command said, adding that all further details were being withheld until rescue efforts were completed.

Earlier, Radio Hanoi had said an American reconnaissance pilot had been captured after his plane was shot down 175 miles north of the demilitarized zone.

In the South, American ground and air forces killed 155 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese soldiers in three clashes northwest and southwest of Saigon while suffering five Americans killed and 10 wounded.

But enemy gunners fired more than 200 rounds of rockets and mortars into five south Vietnamese towns and a dozen allied bases Sunday night. Military spokesmen said 13 Vietnamese soldiers and seven civilians were killed, while the wounded included 23 South Vietnamese troops, 36 civilians and at least 16 American servicemen.

With 187 enemy troops reported killed in clashes Saturday, the weekend saw some of the hardest fighting since the halt in the bombing of North Vietnam on Nov. 1.

Two of the three ground fights centered 70 to 75 miles northwest of Saigon along the Cambodian border where the enemy command reportedly has massed 15,000 to 20,000 troops. The third fight, on the Mekong Delta 45 miles southwest of Saigon.

Crack American troops from the 1st Air Cavalry Division ran into about 150 North Vietnamese troops at daybreak today a mile from the Cambodian border.

Sees Rougher Road After Moscow Visit

Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, who recently talked with Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin in Moscow, came away feeling "the road is rougher" to reapproachment.

Democrat Albert Gore reported Sunday on a European tour to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization meeting in Brussels, Soviet-occupied Czechoslovakia, and Moscow. He made the trip with Sen. Claiborne Pell, D-R.I., and returned Saturday night.

Both senators are members of the Foreign Relations Committee. Gore heading its disarmament subcommittee. He said they were told at the American embassy in Moscow that they were the first American officials to see Kosygin this year.

Gore said he took no formal message to the Soviet leader, but wanted to impress on him— and thinks he succeeded—that the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia last August threatens to wipe out progress made toward easing tensions between the United States and Russia.

The two countries, Gore said he told the Soviet leader, have a "mutuality of interests" in avoiding a nuclear war.

Kosylin responded that they have not only a mutuality of interest but a common responsibility for world events. Gore quoted Kosygin as saying that the road toward disarmament must be negotiated in stages, perhaps beginning with an agreement not to deploy antiballistic missiles. These weapons are designed to knock an enemy's intercontinental ballistic missiles from the sky.

"I haven't changed my feeling about the need for reapproachment," Gore said. But, he added, "I come back feeling the road is rougher."

Gore said Kosygin told him it would not be possible for the two countries to negotiate if one has a significant nuclear edge over the other. The premier's remarks appeared to be directed toward President-elect Richard M. Nixon, who asserted in a nationwide radio broadcast Oct. 24 that America must be able to negotiate with the Soviet Union "not from weakness but with the persuasiveness of respectability and evident power."

Such a philosophy, Kosygin told Gore and Pell, would mean each side would work to strengthen itself and an escalation of the arms race would result.

Gore's report on the hour-and-a-half-minute conference last Tuesday was taken from a summary prepared by the American embassy, whose representatives took notes. Under the normal rules for interviews with heads of governments, no direct quotation is permitted.

Kosygin told the two senators that the Soviet Union is committed to peaceful coexistence with the West. And, said Gore, Kosygin appeared surprised when he said the invasion had had a chilling effect on steps toward disarmament.

Thinks House Should Rule on Powell Again

By RICHARD P. POWERS
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A member of the select committee that originally investigated Adam Clayton Powell says the House should consider barring the Harlem congressman again.

Wisconsin Republican Vernon W. Thomson also questioned in an interview whether the House would obey a Supreme Court order to seat Powell.

"If it should rule that Powell should have been seated, it would create a very serious constitutional impasse," Thomson said.

Thomson, who said he was surprised when the high court agreed earlier this month to hear Powell's appeal, added that Congress has the sole right to judge qualifications of its members.

Thomson said no move is under way to bar Powell, overwhelmingly re-elected Nov. 5, from the next Congress.

"But," he said, "it seems that a Congress which is talking about improving its image and its ethics would give serious consideration to seating a member who has been charged by a select committee of that body with conduct which is highly unethical if not something more serious."

The select committee recommended in 1937 that the House seat Powell but censure him and require payment of $40,000 he allegedly misused for personal expenses.

The House, however, overrode the committee recommendation and excluded Powell galling a seat in the 90th congress and stripped him of all seniority. The Supreme Court agreed Nov. 18 to hear Powell's suit which alleges that the House acted unconstitutionally when it excluded him.

At the time, Powell said he did not think Congress would reverse his taking the case to the Supreme Court.
